1. On a motion made by the learned counsel appearing for petitioner, complaint (ULP) No.121 of 2000 filed before the Industrial Court is permitted to be withdrawn with liberty to file a fresh complaint. If such a complaint is filed, the Industrial Court shall decide it on its own merit in accordance with law without being influenced by the order passed by the Industrial Court on (ULP) complaint No.120 of 2000. As a result of withdrawal of the complaint, the order passed thereon by the Industrial Court does not survive for consideration, rendering this petition infructuous.

Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.

. Parties to act on the copy of this order duly authenticated by the Associate / Private Secretary as true copy.

. Certified copy expedited.
